

DARTS AT THE XVIII AUSTRALIAN MASTERS GAMES PERTH

Wednesday saw the playing of the men's and ladies' singles.

12 men and 16 ladies took part. There was plenty of cheering, laughs and giggles.

All the players encouraged each other and spirits were high.

After a full round robin – where the players played each person in their group – The men's semi finals came down to Howard Jones v Christopher Turland and Ronald Nakata v Grant Dobson. Howard was victorious with an 88.11 average. In the other semi-final saw Grant claim his final spot with a 74.35 average.

The final was an exciting game to watch with 2 long time friends playing each other. The final result was Howard Jones 4 def Grant Dobson 1. Howard Jones again impressed with an 87.04 average. Presentation of medals followed with lots of well-earned applause
